Ref. A5-3254-39. South Kanara Collector's Office, Mangalore, dated 26th September 1939.

From

Sri Rao Bahadur C. P. Karunakara Menon, Collector of South Kanara.

The Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Madras.

Sir,

Allowances - Tasdik - Karkal Taluk - Mudakonaje village - No. 299 Sri Brahma - Struck off the registers - Readmission.

Institution No. 299, Konaje Brahma of Moodakonaje village, Karkal Taluk has got an annual allowance of Rs. 16-0-0. In 1923, it was struck off the registers and the allowance resumed the building was in ruins. One kuppanna Bhatta who was appointed as the trustee of the institution towards the end of 1938, has applied for the readmission of the allowance and the payment of the arrears from the date of stoppage. It is reported that the institution was revived only in fasli 1347 and that the services have been properly rendered and the building kept in good condition ever since. I therefore solicit sanction for the readmission of the allowance and the payment of arrears from fasli 1347 to the above trustee.

The Collector reports that in 1923 the annual allowance of Rs. 16/- payable to the Institution No. 299, Konaje Brahma of Mudakonaje Vge. was struck off the registers and the allowance resumed as the building fell into ruins. It is stated that one Kushanna Bhatta who was appointed as the trustee of the temple towards the end of 1938 has applied for the readmission of the allowance and the payment of arrears from the date of stoppage. The Collector states that the temple was revived only in Fasli 1347 and that the services have been regularly rendered and the building kept in good condition ever since and in the circumstances he seeks sanction for the readmission of allowance and the payment of arrears from Fasli 1347

According to G.O. No. 67-1(7) any arrears or other cash allowance should be struck off the registers, if it has not been claimed for more than six years and the arrears will be forfeited to Govt. The Collector states that the temple fell into ruins in 1923.

Presumably the allowance was not claimed for more than six years and so it was struck off the registers. According to conditions (i) and (ii) in clause 7 of B.S.O.
0·67-1, claim to a lapsed allowance should be readmitted only if the failure to apply for payment, when it fell due, arose not from neglect but from disability and arrears of allowances should be paid only if the institution was in good order & the service properly rendered during the period for which they were left undrawn.
There is nothing in the Collector's letter to show that there was any disability: on the other hand there appears to have been some neglect which led to the ruin of the temple and the cessation of services but the Collector states that the services have been properly rendered and the building kept in good condition since earlier 1347 the period from which the arrears of allowance ~~are claimed~~.

As condition (i) in clause 7 of B.S.O.

7-1 has not been satisfied in the case. The Board has no power to readmit the allowance and sanction the payment of arrears in favour of the institution. The sanction of Govt. has to be obtained. The Board may recommend it. Readmission with effect from 1/1/37 because the R.E Board appears to have stopped it to avoid. For precedent please see the P at (K)
